

September 11, 2017

The Forest Park Band Boosters held their monthly meeting on Monday, September 11, 2017 in the band room.

Alan Winkler, President, welcomed boosters.

Minutes from the July meeting were approved by Rob Randle and seconded by Susan Blume.

Kathy Wilmes gave a report on the 4-H Fair food booth and stated the booth was a success. She thanked all for their help and also thanked Don Farina for cleaning the grills. A new microwave was purchased for the booth.

Rodney Welp stated that the Flea Market went well. The food booth at the flea market was a welcome addition. He informed boosters that next year's mattress sale will not be held in conjunction with the flea market, but will be held on a separate day. More details will follow.

Football concessions are on-going. Parents are reminded that they must find someone to trade with if they cannot make their scheduled date to work. All workers scheduled are needed and trades should be with another adult due to food and money handling.

Fall raffle tickets are still being turned in. If any family still has tickets, sold or unsold, they are urged to turn them in as soon as possible. The committee is continuing to contact previous purchasers that have not yet bought a ticket. If anyone not on the committee has time to help make calls, they are welcome to meet at the high school from 6:30-8:30 on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Any amount of time and help would be greatly appreciated.

Rob Randle reported that the September 9 can and paper drive went well and thanked those in attendance for their help. The committee is still looking for some new members.

Rodney Welp reported that planning is in progress for basketball concessions.

Lisa Dale of the trip committee gave an update on the Disney trip. A representative from the travel company will hold a meeting with parents prior to the trip. The date will be announced later.

Rob Randle with maintenance and equipment reported that the trailer now has new tires and its most recent inspection.

Work for props continues on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Susan Blume gave an update on the Odds and Ends Committee. Work is almost complete on the embellishments for hat plumes.

The pit crew stated things went well for the first contest.

Alan Winker introduced some new software and equipment purchased by the band for treasury and accounting services. The treasurer's report was given by Rodney Welp. Betsy Corley was also present to explain new wording and format of the financial report. A special thanks goes out to Betsy for her assistance in setting up the new system.

Mr. Gayso showed the video of the band's performance from the Evansville Central competition on Sept. 9, where the band placed first in its class. He gave updates on times for upcoming contests as well.

The meeting was adjourned by Lisa Dale and seconded by Brett Eckert.

The next meeting will be held Monday, October 2 at 7:30 in the band room. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.

Donna Weyer, Secretary
