- If your medication is available on one of these programs, you will see a list of pharmacies with pricing, in your neighborhood.
- If your medication is not on one of the discount generic drug programs we will send you a notification of when it is, or we will suggest a therapeutic equivalent. It is that simple.

Note: Medtipster does not sell any drugs, they are a search engine for finding discounted drugs at pharmacies and drug stores. It is important to note that they do not have retail pricing of all drugs, only those that are discounted. They attempt to include discount prices from all pharmacies and drug stores.
